3. Release of publication rights

By signature of this document, the author releases the exclusive publication rights to the article to "Suomalainen Lakimiesyhdistys", the publisher of the "Lakimies" periodical (publisher). By this release, the author conveys to the publisher the right to publish the article in the print edition of "Lakimies", the right to store the article in electronic format and to distribute it in the electronic edition of "Lakimies", as well as the right to publish the article in some other format and to release the said right to another publisher.

This release of publication rights does not affect the right of the author to decide on the publication of the article or a part thereof in some other language, nor his or her right to use the article or a part thereof as a part of a later article or other work which clearly departs from the contents of the subject of this release, or where the scholarly content of the article has been revised.

If the publisher releases the publication rights to the article to another publisher for a commercial re-issue, the respective consideration shall be split evenly between the author and the publisher. No fees will be paid for other kinds of re-issue. In the context of a re-issue, the name of the author and the original publication data shall be supplied.

The author is entitled to an E-offprint (pdf-file).

3. Release of publication rights

I hereby release the publication rights to my article in accordance with the terms and conditions above.
